Notice") of their intent to reject certain unexpired leases identified on Exhibit 1 hereto ("Leases") and to abandon any property remaining at the leased premises on the Rejection Date of the applicable Leases that the Debtors determine is too difficult to remove or expensive to store, such that the economic benefits of removing or storing such remaining property would by outweighed by the attendant costs in accordance with the terms of the Rejection Procedures Order; and such notice having been adequate and appropriate under the circumstances; and it appearing that no other or further notice need be provided; and no timely objections having been filed to the Rejection Notice with respect to the Leases; and the Court having found and determined that the relief requested is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and all parties in interest and a proper exercise of business judgment; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Leases are hereby rejected pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 365 as set forth herein, effective as of the later of (i) service and filing of the Rejection Notice and (ii) the date the Debtors have surrendered the premises to the Landlord via the delivery of the keys, key codes, and alarm codes to the premises, as applicable, to the Landlord, or, if not delivering such keys or codes, providing notice that the Landlord may re-let the premises, as such estimated dates are set forth on Exhibit 1 (the "Rejection Date").
